

CHRIST SATISFIES THOMAS' DOUBTS.

Jesus said, "Thomas, let me have your finger,

Put it here in my hands!

And now let me have your hand.

Place it here in my side!"

"And do not be incredulous but believe!"

This message tells us that it is far better

To relate to the risen Christ

On the basis of pure faith

That rests not on appearances, feelings,

External evidence, or what other people say,

But on our personal experience

Of the Christ-life rising up

And manifesting its fruits within us.

This is the living faith that empowers us to act

Under the influence of the Spirit -

The same Spirit that Jesus breathed upon

The apostles on the evening of his Resurrection.

The Mystery of Christ

Happy Easter to all.

John, Michele, Alan, Niamh, Tom, Eileen, Kathleen
(Core Team, Contemplative Outreach Ireland.)